5. SIGNATURES

FOR YOUR INFORMATION: The Heritage Preservation Commission (HPC) is required to make a finding of fact based on information provided by the applicant and must find that the granting of the permit for the property location will be harmonious and compatible with other properties adjacent to and in the vicinity of historic district. The HPC may attach conditions to the Certificate of Appropriateness to guarantee historic architectural compatibility and preservation. Violation of a condition(s) of the permit shall be deemed a violation of the St. Cloud Heritage Preservation Ordinance and the permit shall be thereupon revoked. According to Section 370:20, Subdivisions 11A and 11B, of the St. Cloud Heritage Preservation Ordinance, the HPC shall notify applicant within forty (40) days of receipt of an application and plans for work if the work to be performed is contrary to the Design Review Guidelines. If it is determined that the work to be performed will not adversely affect the applicable Design Review Guidelines, the application shall be approved and the applicant notified in writing of such action. If the Heritage Preservation Property Alteration Permit is denied or modified by the HPC, the applicant shall, within ten (10) days of the date of the Heritage Preservation Commission's order and decision, have a right to appeal such order and decision to the City Council. The HPC shall notify the applicant in writing of its findings and action to modify or deny the permit application. The City Council shall hold a public hearing in accordance with Section 370:15, Subdivision 5 of this Ordinance. The City Council shall render a decision on the appeal within thirty (30) days of the date of the public hearing held before the City Council or it shall be considered denied.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that I have read, examined, and understand this application and that the information submitted herein and attached hereto is true, accurate, and correctly states my intentions. I also understand this application will not be accepted and reviewed until all required supporting documentation has been supplied.
